THE HISTORY OF THE TOOTHAKER FAMILY IN AMERICA.

BY REV. CHARLES N. SINNETT, [illegible]

(I) ROGER TOOTHAKER, the ancestor, was born in England, about I6I2; and died before I638. He came to America in the ship HOPEWELL, in I635. (See the History of Billerica, Mass., by Mr. Hazen.) "The original lists of persons of quality and others, who went from Great Britain to the American Plantations I600---I700, by John Camden Hotten, London, I874, Page I30. 'Sept, I635, Their underwriiten names are to be transported to New England, imbarqued in the Hopewell;; Thomas Babb, Master; Certificates from the ministers or Justices of the Conformitie in religion to the Church of England: of yt they are no Subsidy men, they have taken oaths of allegiance of Suprem----Roger Toothaker , 23 years; Margaret Toothaker, 28 years. "

Margaret Toothaker, the widow of Roger Toothaker, married 2nd, I638 Ralph Hill, Senior, as his second wife. Savage mention this. Another writer gives the date of this marriage as Dec 3I, I637, which would seem to be erroneous. Widow Margaret Toothaker after this second marriage, must have lived at Plymouth, Mass., for some little time. Plymouth, Mass., Records, I637--8," At a Court of Assessments held at New Plymouth, Feb 5th, in the I3th year of His Majesty's reign, of England, &c., a garden place at Wellingly and 6 acres of land upon Towsry Plaine, are granted unto Margaret Toothaker, widow." " Sept 4, I638 John Allen and widow Toothaker, prosecuted for stopping the highway that goeth to Monumet. Released."

" Ralph Hill who married widow Margaret Toothaker, was an early resident of Plymouth, Mass., and probably came there from Billerica, Mass. In I674 he was made a Freeman at Woburn, Mass. Selectman I649. He joined the settlement on the Shawshin as early as any, and 'Lived on the farm.' In I663 he gave the town a 'burying place', and died in the same year. His own body was doubtless the first to be laid in the 'Old South Burying ground." (Was this at Billerica, or where?)

In the Will of Ralph Hill, a granddaughter, Mary Littlefield, is mentioned. Francis Littlefield of Woburn and his wife Jane had a daughter, Mary born Dec I4, I646; the mother dying Dec 20th; and Mary Littlefield married Nov., I664 John Kitterage. That Ralph Hill had the above daugheter Jane is very certain.

(2nd generation) Martha Toothaker, who may have been the second child in the family. Married in Billerica, Mass., Nov 5, I660 Ralph Hill, Jr.

(2nd generation) Roger Toothaker b I634, as he was one year old when he came to America with his parents in the ship Hopewell, Sept I6, I635; He died at Billerica, Mass., Nov 22, I685 . Another says died I695 or I694.

In I654 he had "leave to abide in Charlestown" [illegible] day of the 9th month, I660, the town of Billerica, Mass.,

have granted unto Roger Toothaker lyberty to live in ye towne, and to settle upon and improve ye lot which his father, Ralph Hill, Senior, gave him, which lyeth in the great common field on ye East side of the Concord River, bellow ye great bridge; also the town do grant him commonage and herbage, wood and timber, for his use." " There he had his home, which, when built, was probably the extreme northern house in the town. It is said to be still standing as the 'ell' of the Rogers' house at the place where the canal leaves the River."

John Bailey Toothaker said in 1901," The house is still standing in which the fourth Roger Toothaker lived. The old Toothaker house in Billerica, Mass., was first built of logs, and and stones, about 1695, and still stands, and is partially stone, partially wood, and largely brick. It is in a factory village, and is called Billerica Mills, about I½ miles from the Center Billerica Village..Generations of Toothakers were born there, my father being the last. The place is now owned by a Mr. Rogers, who married into the Toothaker Family."

Rev. J. Elliott Bowman, 1902," The ell of the Rogers house, spoken of in Dr. Hazen's History of Billerica, Mass., as probably a part of the original Toothaker house, was torn down in 1898--'9"

For the full facts in regard to this original Toothaker home write Harriet B. Rogers, North Billerica, Mass.

" In 1664 Roger Toothaker exchanged about five acers of land which lay west of the road, for twelve acres, 'lying on both sides, and taking in that long span of meadow upon the pine plains on the side of the common field, on the east side of it.' This exchange was doubtless made to insure the town the mill privilidge for future use. Roger Toothaker seems to have practiced medicine, and was called Dr. at Salem, Mass, but our records do not give him that title. On Ia, 1682--'3 , at a Selectman's Meeting, 'Roger Toothaker being sent for and spoken unto concerning many things amiss in his family, he desired that they would exercise a little more patience towards him, and he promised amendment.' But the amendment was not thorough; and in 1684, Dec 14th, the Selectmen wrote him a letter, probably at Salem, Mass., where he seems to have gone, ' To come for his wife the middle of ye next week, and that they would help away his family---in case of need and help fit them out.' There was 'need' enough, but Roger Toothaker did not heed it. His wife received charitable aid, and 'two of the children are put out to Joseph Walker and to Edward Farmer.' "

"When the witchcraft trials came on at Salem, Mass., in which his wife's sister, Mrs. Currier, suffered, Roger Toothaker appeared as a ready witness"

Page 197 History of Billerica, Mass." This was the period of witchcraft troubles and trials , to which, however, the Billerica records make no allusion. The aid given to the Toothaker family shows Roger Toothaker's neglect of them while he was engaged in the 'Salem folishness'.; and the deaths of Mrs. Rebecca Chamberlain and John Durent 'in ye prison at Cambridge,' in Sept and October, 1692, and suggested the influence of Mr. Farmer that the charge on which he was imprisoned was witchcraft. A Billerica, Mass., woman, whose late residence had been Andover, Mrs. Martha Currier, became one of the most notable of the sufferers, being executed at the time with George Burroughs. Her bearing at the trial is distinguished by courage and good sense and rest chiefly on the abhorrence of those who exercise the dreary literature of this terrible delusion. Her one child, out of her eight children, testified that her mother made her touch a book; it was in Andrew Fuller's nature; Elizabeth Johnson was there; her Aunt Toothaker, and a cousin, in whom she was baptized;; and Roger Toothaker bore swift witness, in language too filthy for quotation (See Upton's Salem Witchcraft, Vol 2, pages 117 & 208, and also the manuscript depositions in the Salem, Mass., Archives.) "

Roger Toothaker's name is spelled Toothacre and Toothaker in the old record of Billerica, Mass., this spelling being the work of those who kept the records.

"The History of Billerica, Mass.," page 186 " Roger Toothaker was one of the signers of a petition to the General Court at Boston, Mass., Oct 19,1664; for the town of Billerica, stating that the Colonies were not diesatisfied with the Government of Charles 2nd in 1660 ." Page 196," 10th the month, 18th day, 1670 1694, It Thompson laid out in money at Boston, Mass., 10 shillings. for Roger Toothaker's family., for which he bought four pairs of shoes, one pound of whalebone, one yard of farrandine for cape, and one blue apron."

"In July, 1694, the abatement of the tax of Roger Toothaker was made because of his decease."

Roger Toothaker married , after he had lived in Billerica , Mass. five years, June 9, 1665 Mary Allen who was killed at Billerica, Mass., by the Indians, Aug 5,1695. Her name is spelled Allin in the old Billerica, Mass., records, which state that she was married by Simeon Bradstreet, Esq. Billerica Records," She was slain by ye Indian enemy."

History of Billerica, Mass., page 130," The Indian assault, so long dreaded, and guarded against, fell at last on Billerica, Aug 1,1692., and the place of assault was about half a mile south of North Billerica. Among the families is that of Roger Toothaker, who at this time was wasting his time and substance in pursuit of the witchcraft delusions at Salem and leaving his family to charitable aid. The second Indian attack was Aug 5,1695, and 15 persons were killed, or taken at the suprisal. So Roger Toothaker's wife was killed, and Margaret , the youngest daughter, taken prisoner."

Mary Allen was the daughter of Andrew Allen of Andover, Mass. "History of Andover, Mass., 1829," Andrew Allen died 1690--(2) Andrew Allen---(3) John Allen----(3)James Allen---(3) Andrew Allen--(4)Thomas Allen, (5)James Allen------ (5)John Allen--(5)John Allen-- John Allen.

Lines to Sarah Jane ... by Sarah Taylor Toothaker, Englewood Ill., 1886.

Why dost thou bid thy friends farewell,
And cause the tears to start?
Why wilt not wreath the lovely spell
That binds thee to the heart.
Why canst thou leave thy loved ones here
Who would invite thy stay?
How canst thou leave thy mother dear
To wander far away?
"Oh, name it not" I hear thee say,
"Lest thought would rend my heart,
Will Jesus calls I must obey,
How hard soe'er to part.
The foot may turn away,
The bright eye hidden be,
And tracts of earth unmursel
Between thy friends and thee,
Yet in communion sweet,
'Mid contemplation's hours,
Congenial hearts as well may meet,
As in their native bowers.
The parting pang may cost
A tear to dim the eye,
And for the frame in distance lost
The yearning lover sigh;
But still our prayers may blend
From earth's remotest shore,
As to the holy shrine we bend
Where partings are no more
Farewell, my friend, then fare thee well,

In response to my country's call I enlisted at Greenbush, Wis., May I, I86I in Co B, 8th Wisconsin Regiment, Volunteer Infantry, under Capt.B.B.Conger and Colonel A.C.Murphy, to serve for three years, or during the War. Our Regiment was assigned to the Second Brigade,Ist Division, I6th Corps, Army of Miss.Our Company spent about two months at Greenbush, Wis., in daily drills, and in July we were taken to Madison,Wis., and put in our Regiment, where we had regimental drills each day. About Sept Ist we left Madison for St .Louis, a number of our Company going into camp at Benton Barracks on the Fair Grounds , just opposite the City.The next day we were sent out to guard the Iron Mountan railroad, against Jeff Thompson's Rebel Cavalry, which had been burning bridges and tearing up tracks. After driving the Rebels back to Fredericktown we returned to the railroad where we found a train waiting to take us to Pilot Knob. Oct I6th I86I we again surprised Thompson and his Cavalry, and, after two or three days' fighting, we succeeded in taking a few prisoners and some amunition. This was the last that we ever saw of Thompson and his troops.We then returned to Pilot Knob where we remained about a month to guard the railroad.We were next ordered to Cairo, Ills., to await the issuing of the new Springfield muskets. On Mch Ist we crossed the river, and went by train to Point Pleasant, Mo.,about thirty miles south of Cairo.From there we marched to New Madrid.Here we had a three days' skirmish with the Rebels, fighting daytimes ,and advancing as far as we could under cover of the night, digging trenches to protect against the guns of the enemy.On the third day we succeeded in driving the enemy from their works, and capturing all their heavy guns.Our Regiment was next sent down below Island No IO,For three weeks Commodore Foote's flotilla had been bombarding the heavy fortifications at the end of the Island without avail. But Foote at last hit on a plan which proved successful.Landing the boat, the Ohio Belle, with a load of men ,he cut a roadway around through the forest, and, taking advantage of the flooded condition of the river, floated the gunboats around to the unfortified end of the Island and took over 500 prisoners without firing a shot. We then went back to New Madrid, where we were Brigaded under the command Joseph Mower, consisting of the following: 5th Minnesota,IIth Missouri, ---4th Ills, and 8th Wisconsin.

"On Apr 26th we went up the River to Hamburg Landing, about three miles above Shiloh, marching from there to Corinth, where, after three days' fighting, we compelled the enemy to evacuate.

Our next important engagement was a two--days' battle at Luka,Sept I9th & 20th.General Mower, our Brigade commander, being wounded in the neck,and having fallen with his horse, was captured by the Rebels, but they, supposing him to be dying, left him in the care of a single attendant.The General was not so dead, however, as they supposed him to be, for, watching his chance, when the attendant was looking the other way, he sprang from his cot and ran like a deer to where a mule stood grazing, and, with hat in hand, amid a shower of Rebel bullets, rode into the Federal ranks. Oct 3d and 4th, Price and Van Buren tried to retake Corinth and were defeated with great loss.We had no important engagement in the winter of I862. But at the beginning of next year Gen.Grant began concentrating all of his forces about Vicksburg. In the hope of getting a position in the rear of the town, three months were spent in boating about the bayous around Vicksburg. A canal was cut across a bend in the river with a view to opening a passage for the gun boats, but a flood washed all the works away.Finally it was decided to run the fleet past Vicksburg, and, on the night of April I6th, the boats made the attempt. At once the Rebel guns burst forth with shot and shell. pelting the passing steamers, but they went on with but little damage.The land forces now marched down to form a junction with the squadron and on May 2nd our Regiment helped in the evacuation of Grand Gulf, and, on the 14th of the same month, helped in the capture of Jackson, the capital. On the 16th General Pemberston, with his Rebel forces from Vicksburg, was met and defeated at Champion Hills, and was obliged to seek safety within the fortifications of Vicksburg, for he had also been defeated on the 17th at Big Black River Bridge. Two assaults were made on the Rebel works, but they were repulsed with terrible losses, so it was decided that the only way to capture the city was to by laying siege to it. Accordingly, we cut off all points of supply. Two rather important engagements were fought, at Haines' Bluff and Mechanicsville in June. Grant continued the siege of Vicksburg until July 4th, when Pemberton, being able to hold out no longer, surrendered the city with more than 30,000 men, thousnads of small arms, hundreds of cannon, and quantities of amunition and stores.

"About this time I was taken sick, and on July 29th I received my discharg from St Louis. I returned home, and was doctored up. On Nov 17th I re-enlisted, joining my command again at Big Black River Bridge, Miss. From here we went over to Canton with supplies for Sherman, Grant having been put in command of the Army of the West. Sherman then ordered us dow to reinforce Banks on the Red River expedition. Our first battle was fought Mch 13th, 1864 at Fort De Russey., and resulted in the capture of the first fort and the taking of many prisoners. At Alexandria we were joined by Banks. We were sent in pursuit of some Rebels who had gone out a little bit from Alexandria, on our enetering the city, and, on overtaking them, we engaged them in a skirmish until 3 P.M., when we went into camp on a hill, less than a mile from the Rebel camp. In the evening General Mower sent word around that the boys might build all the fires they wanted to, and soon the top of the hill was covered with camp fires. About 9 o'clock we received the order to fall in and not to speak a loud word. We were marched right off from our fires. We could see where the enemy had gone into camp, but we kept off to the left and went right in around them. When we had them well surrounded General Mower heard some one coming, and, halting them, demanded, and received, the countersign, they thinking him to be a Rebel picket. Mower then enquired where they were going, and, upon their replying that they were going for reinforcements for their General, General Mower said, 'I am just the one you are looking for, for Gen. Taylor ordered me down to reinforce y u.' After getting from these men all the information that he could, Mower said, 'You may consider yourselves prisoners.' 'Why,' they answered, 'we are not Yankees!' 'That is just it.' Mower replied. 'We are Yankees.' We were then marched up on the Rebel lines, and, giving the countersign, marched right in among the sleeping troops, and took about a thousand prisoners without firing a shot.

"Banks' troops suffered a defeat in an engagement at Sabine Cross Roads on Apr 8th, but the next day our troops met these same Rebels and fought two battles with them at Pleasant Hills and Cane River, defeating them at both places and capturing back more than half the artillery that Banks had lost. Generals Smith and Mower wished to pursue the Rebels. But Banks said that we had not more than amunition enough to cover our retreat. On May 12th we again encountered these same Rebels at Alexandria, defeating them and driving them out, after which we burned the town. During the battle of Alexandria some of our artillery horses had received a broken leg from a bursting shell. But when the bugle call sounded to limber up to the guns the faithful horse hobbled around on three legs to his post in front of the gun, and had to be shot.

"Our next battle was at Lake Chico, July 7th and 8th, where we had such hard fighting, but did not take many prisoners. We went from here to Memphis, and I was detailed to care for the wounded soldiers at Adams' Hospital. Our Regiment was next sent to Little Rock, Arkansas, to find out why no word could be received from General Steele. We found that Price had been making a raid brough Arkansas, and had cut off communication with Steele. We were sent on in pursuit of Price, marching through Little Rock to Camp Jirard, O., where we were taken aboard a transport and carried to Jerfferson City, Mo.. repairing bridges that Price ha burned; but we failed to overtake Price's Army.The next day we marched to Lexington, Mo., going into camp for the night.The next morning we had just got into ranks when General Smith received a dispatch from Gen.Rosecrans stating that he had got Price cornered on the Little Blue River, and that, if we could get up there that day, we could capture Price and his whole force.But General Smith said, 'It is forty-five miles to Little Blue River, and I want every man to do the best he can.' And we went through in just eight hours, and with less straggling than on any day before.But when we got there we found that Price had broken through Rosecrans lines, but with the loss of his whole wagon train and nearly half his artillery.From there we went to St; Louis and we had no sooner arrived there than we were ordred to Nashville, Tenn., to reinforce Thomas, and the next morning we left by transport for Nashville, arriving there on the day of the battle of Franklin. We immediately began fortifications outside of Nashville.About this time a heavy storm of rain and sleet set in, covering the ground with about eight inches of ice.This prevented the moving of our troops until the ice broke up again on the morning of the 14th, when Thomas sent us word to be ready to move at daybreak with two days' rations in our haversacks. At daybreak, however, the fog was so dense that one could not see across the yard ahead, so that we did not dare to start until 9 in the morning.We were marched out to within about five miles from Nashville, to a Rebel stronghold situated on the top of a hill.We marched down through the thick ravine, and, reforming,charged right up the hill and took the fort with only one man killed and one wounded. As soon as we had taken this fort we saw the long lines of the Rebels crawling up behind a stone wall down about forty rods from the fort, but, instead of marching directly for them, we marched to the right through the woods,surrounding them and capturing more than 2,000 prisoners., including one battery of light artillery.With a part of my Company I went in pursuit of some Rebels who were trying to escape.We succeeded in capturing a part of them,but when I got back I found that the rest of my Company had gone back to Nashville to guard the prisoners.The next day at 3 P.M.we made a desperate charge on the enemy's lines, and it was during this charge that I was disabled by a gun-shot wound through my left shoulder.For four weeks I was confined in a hospital at Nashville,as soon as I was able to be moved I was taken to Louisville,Ky, where I remained three months.I then received a furlough and swent home for 30 days.I returned to Louisville at the expiration of my furlough, but we were soon transferred to Madison,Wis., where I was in the hospital four months longer."

"Levi Toothaker, Jr., a veteran of the Civil War, a member of Co F., First Maine Cavalry, died Thursday morning at his home on Maine St., Brunswick, Me., after a long illness, aged 70 years--8 months--27 days. He was born in Brunswick, Me., and practically lived here all of his life. He was engaged in the livery business for many years, first on Cumberland St., and then at the Tontine Stables; later at the Elm House stables; and about 30 years ago he started the business which 10 years ago he sold to Dunning Brothers. For a number of years he had been an invalid, during the past 4 years being unable to take a step, and for the past four months he was confined to his bed. Bright's disease was the direct cause of his death. Mr. Levi Toothaker was a member of the Methodist Church and actively interested in its welfare. Only a few weeks ago he gave a beautiful stained glass window for this church. He is survived by his wife, Sister, Mrs. T.B. Dunning, sister, Mrs. Fred Milliken of Saco, Me; and by his brothers Daniel Toothaker and Charles Toothaker of B. Funeral from the Methodist Church."

(5th generation) ~~probably~~ GIDEON TOOTHAKER b Harpswell, Me., Feb I, I75I.

He was ~~probably~~ the son of (4) Seth Toothaker of Harpswell, Me.

His Florinda Stover: "My mother had a great Uncle, Seth Toothaker-- he must have been her Grandfather Gideon Toothaker's brother. Mother's father had no brother Seth Toothaker.
George Parsons remembers some thrilling stories of his great Uncle Seth Toothaker; of his being in the Revolutionary War; shooting a big Indian in the night when he was on guard.
I wish that I knew how many brothers and sisters this great-grandfather Gideon Toothaker had." "I copied the list of Gideon Toothaker's children from Albert Toothaker's papers; the list is like yours." "If Seth Toothaker and John Rodick married sisters their children would be cousins--- a great find."

"The above Gideon Toothaker had a sister Deborah Toothaker, who married Joseph Tarr; for Gideon's son, Wm. Rodick Toothaker married his cousin Sarah Tarr, daughter of Joseph Tarr and Deborah Toothaker."

(7) William Toothaker died Kewanee, Henry County, Ills., July, I894. " William Toothaker was born in a small town near Bangor, Me." Mrs. Vine Ellis," His first wife was Rebecca Jack" Another says, He married Rebecca Williams who d at Richmond, Me., in I85I". "He married in Ills. but there were no children of this second marriage." William Toothaker was a ship carpenter.
This letter was evidently from the wife of William Toothaker:
"Dear Sister: I will try to write you a few lines. Just at this time, I am not enjoying very good health and am suffering with Bronchitis in the throat, which makes me feel badly. My husband is pretty well for him, he is getting old; most 75. I suppose you are contented with your lot, sitting day after day, providing it will not be long before it will all be over, and then be at rest. Arvilla is with us now, but she expects soon to leave for Boston, and it seems as if I could not let her go back; but that is the way of the world, go and come. I will close for William is hurrying me up for something to eat. Please few lines are from William's wife. Mrs. Sarah E. Toothaker."

Letter from the daughter, Mrs. Arvilla Seavey. Kewaunee, Sunday Nov 7.

"Dear Aunt Deborah: As I am down to father's to-day I thought I would answer your letter, which father got some time ago. Father is real smart for him. We have just returned from Church, and, it being somewhat cold, we were obliged to walk fast. Father walked so fast that I was all out of breath when we arrived home. He walked without a cane; but, my goodness, he is so small; he weighs I26 pounds, and comes a little more than up to my shoulder. As for me, I weigh I92 pounds. I am out here on a visit. I was out a year ago, but father is getting along in years, and I always thought so much of him. I thought that I must come again. My home is in Boston, and my name is Arvilla. Cousin Jane has been to see me in Boston. I am sorry for her in losing her husband, and we all liked him very much. How is she? Tell her to write to me. I want so much to hear from her. Dear Aunt, I always wanted to see you more than I can tell you, but I suppose I shall never see you. I am going to return home next week; will write you again. Would like for you to answer. Will give you my address in my next letter. As mother is going to write I will close by sending you my love and good wishes to all. From your niece, Arvilla Seavey."

(7) Albert Toothaker b Dec 28,I836; d at the Eye and Ear Infirmary in Portland, Me., Thursday evening, Apr Io —— (77). His death was due to a fractured skull received by a fall from a Saco line car on Congress Ct., near Elsworth, St. He had been visiting his niece and nephew, Miss Mary I. Toothaker and Chas. E. Toothaker at 22 Arsenal St., had taken dinner there, and, following a trip down town, boarded the Saco car to return to Arsenal St. house. While the car on which he was a passenger was slowly proceeding along after having made a stop, he pushed his way among those on the platform and stepped from it. It is believed that, as he turned, the momentum of the car that he had just left threw him backward to the pavement. He was taken to the Eye and Ear Infirmary and did not regain consciousness. He was a highly respected citizen of Brunswick, Me. The funeral services were held Sunday P.M. conducted by Rev. J.F. Roberts. Bearers; E.E. Coburn, Chas Richardson, Mr. Little and Mr. Leonard." (7th) Mary An Toothaker b July 13, 1858; d Oct 7, 1859.

A letter from Mr. Charles Toothaker of Brunswick, Me (6th); son of Gideon Toothaker, to James Toothaker of Franklin, Mass.

Brunswick, Me., June 2,1861. My Dear Sir: I received yours of April 10th, and fe l very sorry that I have not answered it before.I nave been collecting what records I could in my vicinity in regard to the Toothaker Family. But I cannot give you the name, or the place of birth,, nor the date of death, of the first actual settler in Maine of the name of Toothaker, as yet. But I think that I can. I know the town in the distant part of Maine where he settled when he emigrated from Billerica,Mass. I have thought proper, with the advice of the family, not to go and find this out until we hear from you again, and know your object in asking about their family history, if you saw fit to tell it, why you are desirous to know the particulars of this branch of the family, as my search will be attended with some expense to find out all of the particulars.We have come to the con conclusion to hear from you again and learn your reasons.I have forgotten whether or not I answered any of your questions in regard to the pursuit or calling of in life of the Toothakers.They are mostly farmers.Some are merchants mechanics, some are merchants, some ship owners and ship masters of vessels employed in the European trade to London and Liverpool.Some of our Toothakers have held military and town offices at various times. There are none that I know of that b longed to the learned professions, but one young man of the family has entered Bowdoin College this year. The Toothakers are a smart, enterprising , and industrious and intelligent people, as far as I know them.They are scattered over different parts of this State. It would be impossible to find out the exact number of Toothakers now living, without great expense. One of the Toothakers in Franklin County raised 30 tons of hay, I,400 bushels of oats, 10 bushels of wheat, 50 bushels of barley, 30 bushels of potatoes; made 600 pounds of butter; and 400 pounds of cheese.He had 115 head of horned cattle, 12 horses, and 175 sheep. This I saw in the Report of the Secretary of Agriculture in Maine in 1860. I would further say that my grandfather Toothaker settled in the town of Harpswell, Me., adjoining this, about 1740 or 1741. His name was Seth Toothaker. His brother,Ebenezer Toothaker, settled there at the same time. From these two, I think, are descended all of the Toothakers in this vicinity. If you please, when writing in the future, direct your letters to John Toothaker, Esq, of Brunswick, as he is better qualified than I am to answer questions.They will be promptly answered and attended to.Yours in haste, but with much respect, Charles Toothaker.

(6th)Nathaniel Toothaker b Bowdoinham, Me., June 29, I800; d at Phillips, Me., Feb I0, I874.

"Nathaniel Toothaker was one of the first settlers at Rangeley, Me,, and he and his wife were the first parties to be married there.At the time of this marriage but very few clearings had been made in Rangeley.They went back from the Lake some two miles, and nearly as far from any clearing, built a log house and starte out in life.They cleared a large farm and braved all the dangers of pioneer life.

After a time the log house was anandoned for a frame house of goodly size. The children were reared tweny miles from a store and the corn and grist mill were the same distance away. Two of their children died in early manho d. The others came to the front as men of enterprize and business. When ten of these children were living their united weight was over two thousand pounds. The sons, Joseph, Luther, Raymond, Daniel, William and James, all made one or more successful trips to California." RECORDS OF CAPT. WILLIAM TOOTHAKER OF LONG ISLAND,MAINE.

His Line :(1st) Ancestor Roger Toothaker----(2nd) Roger Toothaker who M Mary Allen---(3d) Andrew Toothaker of York, Me., and Harpswell, Me------ (4th) Ebenezer Toothaker of Harpswell, Me.

(5th generation)Capt William Toothaker, who lived on Long Island, near Belfast, Me., in Penobscot Bay.
"Married Mary Trim of Charleston, Me.. and had 6 boys and 2 girls."

One of the descendants;" I think my grandfather Toothaker was named William.He lived not far from Searsmont,Me. He went West. On his return he died in the Alleghany Mountains, before 1837. He was travelling on foot and there were no public conveyances, He stopped over night at a tavern, as those places were called in those days.In the morning he was found dead in his bed.I suppose that he was buried in that place. At one time he owned a ship, so that I suppose he was a sea-faring man. I cannot tell the name of his wife, or the date of her birth or death.I think she died about 1841."

"Another says ,"Capt,William Toothaker and wife Mary Trim died at Spy, Island, Ills." "We had 2 brothers and 5 sisters." These confused accounts are all that has been found.

The meagre records of the children may not be arranged in their proper order .

" I attended school at Wilton, Iowa.In 1871 took a homestead at Sheldon, Iowa,.Enlisted in the 4th Iowa Veteran Volunteers, Cavalry, Jan 20, 1864 and served two years, until the close of the Civil War.At Sabine Cross Roads we beat the Rebels with a loss of 2,000 men, 16 guns, and 25 wagons loaded with amunition and provisions.In the expedition under Gen.Grierson , from Memphis to Vicksburg, with a loss of 120 killed and Wounded; took 600 prisoners and 5,00 small arms,4,000 of these being new English carbines on their way to Forrest's Cavalry; took 800 mules and horses, and all of the wagon train which we had lost at Sabine Cross Roads, and 60 more besides.; We destroyed scores of loaded railroad trains of factors of every sort, with millions of dollars worth of cotton.In action against Price & Marmaduke Oct 1864, the 4th Iowa captured 240 prisoners, 5 guns, and two battleflags. After the capture of Selma, Ala., Apr 2,1864, our Regt. had in possession many trophies, including 2 Colonels, 70 other officers, 9 guns and 7 battleflagsNight attack at Columbus Key, Ga., in which our Regt. came off the field with 341 prisoners, 67 officers, 12 guns and 7 battleflags. Among the enemy's dead was Colonel Lamar, of Slave

First [illegible]. The next day we assisted in destroying 120,000 bales of cotton, 20,000 sacks of corn, 10 locomotives, 250 cars, the naval armory and yard, 2 rolling mills; 2 powder works; 2 iron works; 3 foundries; 10 factories. The Confederate ram Jackson, I think was the most gratifying part of our capture, and the Memphis Appeal, a notorious paper, which had been driven from its home at Memphis to Granada. Then we marched to Jackson, then to Montgomery; and finally to Columbus, where we caught the vile thing and editor Dill, whom, when we got him, was as meek as a kitten. But he was compelled to take the oath binding him against further publications, &c. His press and entire outfit was destroyed with conspicuous care in the principal street of the town. After the close of the Civil War I took a four years' course of study in Wilton, Iowa, Collegiate Institute. I taught school in Eastern Iowa until 1880. Then moved to O' Brien County, Iowa, and settled on a piece of prairie land, in a sparsely settled frontier of Iowa. By industry and economy I added to this original homestead until it contained 600 acres of rich, valuable land, with commodious buildings, groves, orchards, &c. A beautiful chapel and school house have also been erected on this farm. It is 6 miles from Sheldon, Iowa. In an early day I purchased 5 acres within the present city limits of Sheldon, Iowa. On this in 1894 I built a handsome residence, and moved there from my farm, so that my children might have the benefits of the schools. I always took a great interest in educational matters. For I had taught 26 terms of school; and, while living in Wilton, Iowa, I was Trustee of Wilton Collegiate Institute for several years. I was one of the organizers of Morningside College, Sioux City, Iowa, and have been its ardent supporter in influence and donations. I have served many years as a School Director; Township Treasurer, Justice of the Peace, &c., &c. I was converted at the age of 16 years, and have always been active in Christian work. Have held many offices in Church and Sunday School."

THE TOOTHAKERS OF "BAR HARBOR, MAINE" and MORELAND, OHIO.

Thomas Toothaker of Mount Ayr, Iowa says his great-grandfather was (I)NATHANIEL TOOTHAKER.
This would make the date of this Ancestors birth about 1756.

(2).Probably son of the above, though some of the descendants begin with him, as their Ancestor.
JOHN TOOTHAKER. Hero ... Captain.
His son, Thomas Toothaker said that he lived on an island near Belfast, Me.; that he went to sheet fasts, and was found dead 12 days before his son Nathaniel Toothaker was born.
M 1st Doggetts
M 2nd Butler.
"There were two sons by this 2nd marriage, and they did not marry."
The only child of the 1st marriage, with Miss Doggett:

(3) Nathaniel Toothaker born in Maine 1796; d Oct 12,1872.
"His grandfather Doggett raised him until he was a young man. I think his grandfather's name was Nathaniel, and that he was Captain of a vessel, and so was away at sea most of the time. He attempted to invent perpetual motion, and his mind became unbalanced. The Toothakers of our line lived at Bangor and Belfast, Me., while the Doggetts live at Bangor, Me."
